GET THE VOTE OUT – IT'S TIME TO CHOOSE SIDES

With just days to go before the ballot closes on Tuesday 3rd October, the CWU is asking all of our Representatives to make one final effort to maximise the turn out in the Industrial Action Ballot.

We need to ensure that every single member exercises their right to participate in this critical referendum that will determine their future employment, income and retirement security.

For those members who have yet to complete and return their ballot paper, we urge you to cast your vote today so that it is included in the final count. Even if you do not support the union's campaign it is imperative that you have your say.

The higher the turn out, the louder your voice will be in support of the union's Four Pillars of Security. This will also provide a stronger mandate in future talks and the greater chance of reaching a deal that will deliver a fair pay rise, a decent pension for all, protect our agreements and secure the long term future of Royal Mail, the UK's Universal Postal Service and CWU members.

IT'S TIME TO MAKE YOUR CHOICE.

IT'S TIME TO CHOOSE SIDES. CHOOSE THE CWU OR FOREVER ACCEPT LESS
