AGREEMENT REACHED

The CWU's negotiating team is pleased to report that a Negotiators' Agreement has been reached with Royal Mail Group on Pay and the Four Pillars of Security campaign.

The Agreement will be put to next week's two-day Postal Executive meeting on 30th/31st January 2018 where the Officers will recommend endorsement. Should the Agreement be endorsed it will then be circulated to Branches and Representatives. In addition we can confirm that a meeting of Senior Field Officials has been arranged for 6th/7th February 2018.

Further to LTB 49/18, Branches are encouraged to view and share the latest video from the DGS(P) with as many members and Representatives as possible using the link below:

Following next week's Postal Executive meeting, a further update will be provided relating to the forthcoming membership ballot and with details of the National Briefings for Branch/Area/Unit Reps which are planned for every Division.

Thanks again to all our members, Representatives and Branches for the support and patience they have shown during this dispute and the weeks of difficult and protracted talks. The size and strength of support, reflected in the magnificent ballot result, has meant we have secured an Agreement which the negotiators believe will continue to deliver decent employment, standard of living and retirement security for all our members.
