FOUR PILLARS OF SECURITY AND PAY – UNIT REP BRIEFINGS

Following the Negotiators' Agreement reached between the CWU and Royal Mail Group on Four Pillars of Security and Pay, the Union has begun a series of Unit Representative Briefings across the UK.

This week Briefings were held in the South East, Anglia, South Central and London Divisions, next week the tour will take in the North East, the North West, Scotland and Northern Ireland before concluding the following week with Briefings for Parcellforce members and the Midlands and South Wales/South West Divisions. Once the Briefings are completed, we will be conducting an individual membership ballot between the 12th and 28th March 2018.

The aim of the Briefings is to guide Unit Representatives through key elements of the Agreement, answer any questions and concerns and ask all our Unit Representatives, in every grade and every part of the business, to do all they can to maximise membership support and deliver the biggest possible YES vote for the Pay and Four Pillars of Security Agreement.

By delivering the highest possible turnout and a strong YES vote, we will demonstrate the strength of support for the Agreement we have reached, which the CWU's National Officers and Postal Executive believe will deliver the employment, standard of living and retirement security our members have fought for and which they deserve.
