

NW CWU Women of Today 2021

Women of Today

Every evening from
Monday 1st - Friday
5th March 6pm-7pm

Zoom online Event

To register email

cwunwreg@gmail.com

primarily designed as women's event's but all are welcome.

If you have any questions or want to know more, ring, text or WhatsApp
Sheila Biggins, NW Regional
Women's Lead on 07935 497021.

Monday - Women in our communities A chance to hear from Peace Activist Professor Erinma Bell MBE who has had extensive experience with gun and gang crime. Erinma is the first woman, in 150 years, to have a statue of herself in Manchester Town Hall.

Tuesday – Women in Public Life Including the current Lord Mayor of Liverpool, Anna Rothery who made political history in 2012 as the first elected member to speak at the United Nations in Geneva on Religious, Linguistic and Cultural difference. Julie Gibson, Co-Chair of the CWU NW Councillors Network will also join us.

Wednesday – Women and Music Looking at how music can help our wellbeing, this session will include a performance from Isabel Ingham, a passionate young singer and songwriter. Claire Moore, CWU Health and Safety Rep will introduce a short quiz and information around the use of music for those with Alzheimer's

Thursday – Women in work Alison Hughes is Assistant Director for Information and Communications Technology (ICT), Customer and Digital for Liverpool City Council. We will also be joined by GMB Activist Lindsay England and learn more about her work with the Just a Ball Game organisation.

Friday– Women in History Author Gill Rossini will discuss her book– A History of Women's Lives in Liverpool. This covers stories of the diverse and contrasting women from countless nationalities welcomed by Liverpool over the centuries.